

What is the Adventure Pass?

The Adventure pass allows you to book 3 exciting activities in one go for a lower price than if you book each one separately.

One person can do the following: 1 Rafting Isère Extra trip, 1 session in the Mont-Blanc Treetop Adventure Park and 1 Tandem Paragliding flight of around 20 minutes.

Who can have one ?

Anyone who fulfils the participation conditions for the 3 activities and is at least 14 years old (or 12 years old with an adult participating for the rafting)

See § Participation conditions page 2 for the full participation conditions for each activity.

Scheduling your activities

The three activities have their own specific scheduling requirements.

To book a paragliding slot, we will need to know your current weight (to the nearest kilogram) as this will allow us to choose the optimal and safest time for your flight.

How to book?

You can book online*, by telephone: +33 (04) 79 07 60 00 or in our offices depending on availability. We strongly advise booking in advance to avoid being disappointed.

When we receive your booking we will contact you by telephone to give you the available timeslots for each activity. The booking will then be confirmed with an email which will contain all the details of your booking including the times, dates and meeting points for each participant.

The price of the Adventure Pass

The pass is a discounted package. No additional discounts can be applied to it. The activities are not exchangeable nor can they be divided between multiple participants.
